

Published in an edition of 50 copies, this special limited edition of Cuba includes a numbered and signed photograph by Andrew Moore, and is issued in a cloth slipcase. Taken from 1998 to 2012, the photographs in Cuba depict a series of poignant interiors that display the changing fortunes of the country over its 500-year history. Originally published as Inside Havana in 2002 to wide acclaim, this new version expands that book with a reconfigured layout, finer and larger reproductions, older photographs never before seen or published and new work made specifically for this edition. One of the themes introduced in this version is the contrast between the frayed patinas of Cuban homes versus the unspoiled beauty of the island's nature itself.
