

This stunning book is a paean to Dennis Stock, a photographer whose intimate portraits captured iconic figures and historic moments. A member of the historic Magnum Photos cooperative, Dennis Stock took classic portraits of actors, jazz singers, and hippies, as well as photographs of the natural beauty of Hawaii, the Far East, Japan, and Alaska. Arguably, Stocks most famous portrait is of the actor James Dean walking through Times Square in 1955--the year of his death. The image quickly became a symbol and precursor of the youth movement of the 1960s. Stocks relationship with Dean is the subject of a new film, Life, chronicling Dean and Stocks travels across the US. In addition to the portraits of Dean, this collection includes a dazzling selection from Stocks oeuvre. An insightful essay introduces the photographer along with an extensive biography.
