

Forget the knight in shining armor, take his horse instead! Any man who loves a horsewoman knows that he would be the first to go if she had to choose between him or her equine. After all, what man always lets you take the reins and doesn't complain about being saddled? This humorous book combines color photos with the many reasons why horses and women make a perfect match, including the facts that horses never care what you look like, they mow the grass with pleasure, and they love taking long walks.
